2. QUOTATION. Although labeled "Terms and Conditions of Sale," CTAS intends this document as an offer to sell ("Offer" or "Order"). The terms and conditions of this Order, together with those set forth or referred to on the face of this form as accepted by CTAS in writing, constitute the entire agreement for sale. CTAS may withdraw its Offer at any time prior to Buyer's acceptance. Unless otherwise indicated, every CTAS Offer expires thirty (30) days from the date of issuance. CTAS will use commercially reasonable efforts to fill Orders properly placed and accepted in accordance with these Terms and Conditions of Sale. This Order, however, is not a requirements contract. 3. ACCEPTANCE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF OFFER. Buyer's placement of an order for goods or services in response to this Offer constitutes Buyer's acceptance of the terms of this Offer. Buyer's acceptance of the Offer is expressly limited to the specifications, prices, and other terms stated in the Offer, including these "Terms and Conditions of Sale". Notice is hereby given, and Buyer acknowledges, that different or additional terms in Buyer's order shall be considered material alterations of this Offer and are expressly rejected and shall not be effective without the written approval of an authorized CTAS representative. CTAS hereby rejects all terms and conditions set forth under any prime or other contract to which the Buyer is a party that is not otherwise negotiated and agreed to in writing signed by an authorized representative of CTAS.

4. PRICE. CTAS reserves the right during execution of this Order to amend its prices if increases in raw materials, wages or the cost of production of the goods increase significantly as determined solely by CTAS. Stenographical, typographical and clerical errors are subject to correction. Unless otherwise stated on CTAS Quote, prices quoted are for Goods only and do not include technical data, proprietary rights of any kind, patent rights, tests other than CTAS standard tests, or packaging other than normal domestic commercial packaging, unless expressly agreed to in writing by CTAS.

CTAS further rejects all flow down provisions requiring CTAS to submit to a financial audit.

8. MANUFACTURING. If any of the goods covered by this Order are to be manufactured in accordance with drawings and/or specifications provided by Buyer (the "Specifications"), CTAS shall manufacture the goods strictly in accordance with the Specifications. Buyer may make changes to the Specifications at any time upon reasonable advance notice to CTAS. If such changes result in delay or additional expense to CTAS or unusable raw materials, WIP or finished goods, or such changes result in the obsolescence of any goods or materials, an equitable adjustment of price and delivery schedule will be made.

9. QUANTITY MODIFICATIONS. If the goods provided to Buyer under this Order are custom goods pursuant to Section 8, then CTAS reserves the right to over or under ship by ten percent (10%) of the ordered quantity for any given shipment, until the Order is complete, and bill Buyer for the amount actually shipped. Nothing herein shall relieve either party from fulfilling the obligations set forth herein.

All freight, insurance and other shipping expenses shall be borne by Buyer. Buyer shall inspect shipments for freight damages at time of receipt and immediately notify carrier of any freight damage, file its claim directly with the carrier, and notify CTAS of the damage. Goods may not be returned to CTAS without first obtaining a Returned Goods Authorization Number. The return to CTAS of any nonconforming goods and delivery of any corrected or replaced goods shall be at CTAS expense unless, after inspection by CTAS, CTAS determines, in its discretion, that the returned goods are conforming to Buyer's Specifications. Buyer shall retain title to returned goods until CTAS verifies the goods do not meet Specifications. The purpose of the express exclusive warranty remedies is to provide Buyer with replacement, exchange or credit for non conforming goods. The exclusive remedies will not be deemed to have failed of their essential purpose as long as CTAS is willing and able to replace, exchange, or credit such non conforming goods. IN NO EVENT SHALL CTAS BE LIABLE FOR INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

17. LIMITED LIABILITY. CTAS shall not be liable, under any circumstances, to Buyer or to any other third person or entity with respect to any subject matter of this Order, under any equity, common law, tort, contract, estoppel, negligence, strict liability or other theory, for any (a) incidental, special, punitive, consequential or indirect damages or (b) damages resulting from loss of sale, business, profits, data, opportunity or goodwill, even if the remedies provided for in this Order fail of their essential purpose and even if the party has been advised of the possibility of any of the foregoing damages. In the event of such termination, CTAS shall immediately stop all work and shall immediately cause any and all of its suppliers and subcontractors to cease work.
